

New Look, new directors for Plumline Coffeehouse

By DOROTHY M. JOHNSON

ARMONK — Some 90 young people celebrated the re-opening of the Plum Line Coffeehouse in newly decorated quarters in the Armonk United Methodist Church, June 28. The coffeehouse is sponsored by the North Castle Narcotics Control Council.

Gertmenjan and his wife Susan are acting co-chairmen this year. With their guidance the Methodist Youth Fellowship and friends built a new snack-bar and acquired new furnishings. They are now looking for poster donations. The director and his wife, who were recently married prefer to be known to the group as Jim and Sam. This is their first joint work with a youth group and they are enjoying it immensely, Jim told Patent Trader recently. Jim was graduated from Union Theological Seminary this spring, and Sam will be graduated from there next spring. Jim has been associated with youth group work in South

Pasadena, Calif. and in camps in New Hampshire. Sam has plans to form a drama group that will entertain this summer at the coffeehouse. A hobby of Jim's is camping. He sings, plays guitar and piano, "when pressed," and Sam often accompanies him on the autoharp. They both like amateur hours.

At the opening coffeehouse Kevin Dolan and Larry Millan played guitar and piano and Margaret Donellan sang. Plum Line is open Monday through Friday from 8 p.m. to midnight for the summer. Films are shown Wednesday evenings. Entertainment, is scheduled three nights a week and one night is an evening of quiet. General chairman is

George Holmes; finance, Elliot Bradshaw; maintenance, Ellen Burns; entertainment, Robin Acker and decorations, Donna Burns. "We expect a good summer," Jim said, adding that high school and college students regardless of religious affiliation are welcome at Plum Line "to join in the programs or just sit and rap."

Berking gets alternate post

Max Berking, chairman of the Westchester Democratic Committee, was named an alternate delegate at large to the Democratic National Convention.

stituted for Bronx Democratic leader Patrick J. Cunningham who was offered the alternate delegate post, but rejected it. He contended he should have been a full delegate. In addition to Mr. Berking, former New York Mayor Robert Wagner was named an alternate also. The two posts became vacant when two delegates were unable to attend the convention.

Be Sure, Relaxed Say Experts

For many people, there are few recreational pleasures to match the ease and flexibility of driving into the Great Outdoors with their own camper, trailer, or tent.

Veterans at this increasingly popular pursuit have a knack for enjoying it from the moment they begin their trips.

"I always check over every operational aspect of both my trailer and my Travelall wagon before I go," says one. "Before departure, I have the Travelall completely serviced. And I get into the trailer, and make sure the plumbing, the heater, the stove and refrigerator are working properly."

"I make a short test-run with the combination before I actually leave. That's to check the brakes and lights, and to be sure I've hitched up correctly."

"I don't accept performance that'll be 'all right if I keep an eye on it.' I make it right before I leave. I'm taking my trip to relax, not to prove I can cope with trouble."

The Datsun 510 Wagon. Five big doors. (More doors per car than a lot of other imports.) Gets loads in and out in a hurry. Other interesting specs: Overhead cam engine. Up to 25 miles per gallon. Safety front disc brakes. All-vinyl upholstered interior. Full-synchro 4-speed stick shift (automatic optional). Tinted glass. Fully reclining front bucket seats. Full carpeting. It's more little wagon than you've ever expected. Drive a Datsun... then decide.
